Musical Clubs.

For the first time in the history of the college the Musical Clubs have been called out during the first week of the college year. This early start was occasioned by the proposed joint concert with Colgate on the evening of November 9th, the night before the game. The concert will in all probability be held at the Auditorium in Utica.

Twenty-five new men reported as candidates for the Glee Club, and thirty-four for the Instrumental Club. Both leaders picked trial clubs at once and practice has already been started.

The plans for the year's work are at present very much in embryo, but a three-days' trip in the first days of February is assured, as is also a trip of a week or ten days during Easter vacation. The February trip will probably be to Buffalo. The Easter trip will embrace in all probability the following cities in order: Johnstown, joint concert with Union; Schenectady, Troy, Tarrytown, New York, Asbury Park, N. J., Lakewood, N. J., Scranton, Penn., Binghamton and Elmira. Sundays will be spent with Union at Schenectady and in Binghamton.

The make-up of the clubs is as follows: Glee Club, Bagg, Massee, Allen, Scoon and Hoyt, '07; Beck, Roseboom, Pratt, Morgan and Fitch, '08; Smyth, Leavenworth, A. Osborne and Rifembark, '09; Knox, W. Stone, Sherwin, Dounce, C. T. Stone, Hastings, Coupe, Sarles and Titus, '10; and Simmons, '08, leader. Instrumental Club, Massee, Hemenway, Dunham, Jerome, Hoyt, C. Allen, '07; Fitch, Allen, Jones, Joralemon, Adams, '08; Leavenworth, Welsh, Hastings, Love, Getman, Leavenworth, Lewis, '09;

McNair, W. H. Stone, Barber, McMath, C. F. Brown, Brasted, Renwick, '10.

An Opportunity.

The Syracuse game will be played Saturday, October 13th. The football management has secured a rate of $1.65 a round trip, providing seventy-five buy tickets. The admission at the field has also been reduced from fifty to thirty-five cents for Hamilton men. It is hoped that many will take advantage of this opportunity to see an out-of-town game.

Coach Halliday.

LIFE congratulates the football management on securing the services of Halliday, Cornell, '06, as coach for this season. Mr. Halliday has played football very successfully during the last nine seasons, being five years on the Ithaca High School team and four years on the Cornell Varsity. He has had considerable experience on the line and back of it and for this reason is highly competent to coach every position. The team and college have great confidence in the new coach. We are glad to welcome him to the Hill, and trust that he will be as successful a coach as he has been a player.

Football Schedule.

Sept. 29—Cazenovia Academy at Clinton.
Oct. 3—Cornell at Ithaca.
" 6—St. Lawrence Univ. at Clinton.
" 13—Syracuse Univ. at Syracuse.
" 20—Troy Polytechnical Ins. at Troy.
" 27—Rochester Univ. at Clinton.
Nov. 3—Trinity at Hartford, Conn.
" 10—Colgate at Clinton.

Tennis.

The first fall tournament in the history of Hamilton is now going on. Several Freshmen show much promise, while many other men in college have improved their game to such an extent as to render them strong contenders for places on the team next spring. The only members of last year's team now in college are Captain Day, '07, Simmons, '08, and Conklin, '09. Besides these, Watson, '08, Getman, Truax and Welch, '09, McAneny and Carlos Stone, '10, are players of experience and worth. The team next year ought to be as good as its predecessors. The following are the pairs for the fall tournament: Conklin vs. Getman, Dounce vs. Welch, Day vs. Love, Joralemon vs. C. Stone, Truax vs. Hemenway, Love vs. McAneny, Simmons vs. Watson, Pratt vs. Butler.

The following matches in the first round have been decided: Simmons, '08, defeated Watson '09, 9-7, 3-6, 6-3; Welch, '09, defeated Dounce, '10, 6-0, 6-1.

College Club Night.

On Saturday night at a quarter to seven, and on the following Saturday nights this term, there will be an informal gathering of all who wish to come, in the parlors of Silliman Hall. The meeting will be purely social. College and popular songs will be sung and there will be some light refreshments at hand. It will be an excellent chance for the Freshmen to get acquainted and to learn the Hamilton songs. The Professors are cordially invited. Those who can play any musical instruments are requested to bring them.

Changes in Football Rules of 1906.

The chief alterations in the rules for this season are as follows:

The officials of the game shall be a referee, two umpires and a linesman,

It is, however, allowable to dispense with the second umpire at the discretion of the two institutions involved.

The length of the game has been shortened by ten minutes, making the two halves each thirty minutes in length.

The line of scrimmage for each side is an imaginary line parallel to the goal line and passing through that point of the ball nearest the side's own goal line. It will be noted that there are thus two lines of scrimmage, one for each team, and the two teams are thus separated the length of the ball.

The snapper-back must place the ball flat upon the ground with its long axis at right angles to the line of scrimmage.

It has also been provided that a player to be on the line of scrimmage must have both hands or both feet up to or within one foot of this line. Or he must have one foot and the opposite hand up to or within one foot of it. He must also stand with both feet outside the outside foot of the player next to him unless he be one of the two men standing on either side of the snapper-back, in which case he may lock legs with the snapper-back.

A player attempting to make a fair catch must signal his intention by raising his hand clearly above his head while advancing toward the ball.

Further addition has been made to the rule regarding "down." That is, that the referee shall blow his whistle whenever any portion of the person of the runner with the ball, except his hands or feet, touches the ground while he is in the grasp of an opponent. The ball is also "down" when, as specified in the rules, it goes across the goal line on a kick which has struck the ground in the field of play, except the kick-off, and also when it goes over in the same manner from a forward pass.

Tripping is specifically defined as follows;

A player trips another player when he obstructs him below the knee with that part of his leg that is below the knee.

Hurdling is defined and forbidden. Hurdling in the open is jumping over or attempting to jump over an opponent who is still on his feet. Hurdling in the line is jumping over or attempting to jump over a player on the line of scrimmage with the feet or knees foremost within a distance of five yards on either side of the point where the ball is put in play.

Regarding the taking out of time, it is provided that either captain may ask for time three times during the half without penalty. If thereafter either captain requests time, his side shall be penalized by loss of two yards for each call, unless the player be removed from the game.

Further provision is made against interference with the man snapping the ball back. The opponents must neither interfere in any way whatever with him, nor touch him nor the ball until it is actually put in play. The snapper-back is allowed to have his head, also the hand or foot used in snapping the ball, off-side.

There must always be at least six men of the side in possession of the ball on the line of scrimmage, and if only six are on the line, one of those not on the line must have both feet outside the outside foot of the player on the end of the line.

Furthermore, no player of those ordinarily occupying the position of center, guard or tackle, that is, the five middle players of the line, may drop back from the line of scrimmage on the offense unless he goes back at least five yards, and another player takes his place on the line.

It is furthermore provided that there shall be no shifting of men to evade this rule, the intention being that the big men in the middle of the line shall not be dropped back for the purpose of carrying the ball or using their weight in the interference. The dropping back of a single man five yards in this way is to enable the team to use a kicker if he happens to play on the line.

Holding has been more specifically defined to include the following:

Grasping an opponent with the hands or arms, placing the hands upon an opponent to push him away from the play, circling in any degree any part of the opponent with the arm, any use of the arm to lift an opponent in blocking. The only allowable use of the arm in blocking or obstructing an opponent is with the arms close to the body.

The most radical of all changes made, however, has been the introduction of the forward pass, the rule for this reading as follows:

"One forward pass shall be allowed to each scrimmage, provided such pass be made by a player who was behind the line of scrimmage when the ball was put in play, and provided the ball, after being passed forward, does not touch the ground before being touched by a player of either side."

The necessary distance to be gained in three downs has been doubled, that is, the side in possession of the ball must gain ten yards in three downs instead of five, as formerly. This is the most direct legislation against mass plays.

When the ball has been kicked by a player other than the snapper-back, any player on the kicking side shall be on-side as soon as the ball touches the ground. The is also a very radical change.

It is also provided that such a kicked ball striking the ground, thus putting the kicker's side on-side, may not be kicked further or kicked at from its position on the ground, or while bounding. This is in order to prevent what might be dangerous complications from men kicking at a rolling ball.

The rather indefinite expression of "charging" has been changed to "starting forward beyond the restraining line" in all cases throughout the rules.

The kicker in trying at goal by a place-kick from a touchdown may touch or adjust the ball in the hands of the holder so long as the ball does not touch the ground.

The rule regarding foul play has been amplified and specifically covers

THE COLLEGE IS GRIEVED to learn that Professor Root is unable to resume his work this fall. He has taught well and long for Hamilton and we sincerely hope that he will soon be with us again as acting Professor of Mathematics. We who have profited by his patient instruction and enjoyed the privilege of attending his classes can only regret that the Class of '10 is not so privileged. The college hopes for his speedy convalescence.

THERE ARE A FEW CUSTOMS in the line of college etiquette and tradition that obtain on the Hill and should be known and carefully observed by all Freshmen. Say "Hello" to every man you meet, whether on the Campus or not. This is a most important custom and one that makes for a prime advantage of the small college. Know your fellows. Freshmen speak first and in a manner and tone that becomes you and your position. When you meet a member of the Faculty touch your hat at least. Observe class order in most matters, and especially on coming out of doors. Of course this order is strictly observed at Chapel exit.

If you lay any claim to college spirit be on the football field to watch practice. The field is a good one and lies just back of Carnegie Hall. Learn the songs and yells. You can't get into the spirit of things too soon for your own good or for the good of Hamilton.

AS TO NUMBERS THERE has never been a larger squad on Steuben Field. The coach and college were most happily disappointed to find such a goodly quantity of material, though raw and undeveloped for the most part. Surely we have the men for a light fast team, and that, according to competent opinion, is the kind of a team that will win under the new rules. The squad is hard at work and willing to be. Coach Halliday knows the game in every detail and is here to turn out the best possible team from material available. With such an excellent spirit among the men trying out it is lamentable, and deeply so, that there is not more enthusiasm on the side lines. So far there have been very few men watching practice. The absence of Freshmen has been especially noticeable. We ought to have 75 or 100 men watching the practice and cheering the squad every afternoon. Remember, men of Hamilton, that it is your duty to help the team along by your presence and cheers at practice.

CERTAINLY NEVER BEFORE and probably never again will the American game of football draw upon itself as much and as varied public interest as will be bestowed upon it during this season. The reason for this unusual interest is, as everybody knows, the formation and adoption of several important changes in the heretofore somewhat fixed rules regulating the game.

Will the game be as interesting as ever? How much will the changes in rules affect the game from the viewpoint of the spectator; from the viewpoint of the player? The above are questions heard on every side these days. Those who are patient can wait, see for themselves, and thus satisfactorily answer their own questions. Those who like to speculate can theorize.

Perhaps as satisfactory a summary as any would be to say that football will be the same game as of old with the addition of several interesting specialties. That is to say, football as played in the past will be the foundation upon which innovations will be brought in, such as the forward pass, the onside kick and the rule whereby ten yards are to be gained in three downs. Practically all other alterations are in the line of more specifically explaining the old rules and more definitely defining the duties of the officials with the purpose that the old rules be more thoroughly enforced.

Without doubt the game will be more interesting to the spectator. Whether the players find it so will only be decided by actual test.

Football.

In regard to our own season we predict a successful one. We have been handicapped by the necessity of teaching new men new rules, but nevertheless all have gotten in with the right spirit and things are now running smoothly. We have always been fortunate in our coaches and this year is no exception. Mr. Halliday, Cornell '06, won from the start the confidence and affection of the men.

There were from fifteen to twenty-five men out for preliminary practice, something unprecedented. Owing to the fact that everyone has a show, there have been about thirty men out, since college opened. This speaks well for the season, for a good scrub means a good 'Varsity.

The make-up of the team is as yet not definitely decided. White, Spencer, Allen and the Leavenworths are trying for the end positions. Capt. Schwartz will undoubtedly play one tackle. S. Jones, Barrows and Montgomery are after the other. Swetman, Cody and Fisk will fill the guards' places. At center Thomas, Glover and Williams are disputing for the honors. Holley will play quarter. Getman and Welch will be the subs. McLean, Abbott, Harper, McGarry, Kellogg and several others are after the backs' positions.

The Blue-book.

Contrary to precedent the Blue-books for the present college year were out on time. The Freshmen had them a week before college opened, giving them a preliminary glimpse of the college. The other classes had them last Monday. The books were ready Thursday, but the committee decided to issue them Monday.

The present issue has many improvements on those of previous years. First there has been a general and thorough revision and abbreviation. The whole matter has been logically placed. The cuts are clear, distinct, and black, which adds much to the appearance of the book. The old seal on the cover is done away with. In place of it "Hamilton" is printed on the cover in gilt letters. The color of the cover is a decidedly better blue than last year's.

Hitherto there has been no president's greeting, and this innovation improves the book. Following the president's greeting is the college calendar. A short history of the Y. M. C. A., its purpose and work, is presented, followed by a list, as complete as possible, of all Hamilton missionaries with their locations. Then comes the list of college buildings and a short history of each; all the different branches of college activities and their leaders and managers, a list of the fraternities and college records.

In connection with the basketball management the committee greatly regrets its error. The name of Gordon, '07, should be substituted for Williams, '08, as manager.

The list of college football songs is very complete. These should be learned by the Freshmen as soon as possible.

The "ads" are grouped in one place, followed by twenty-two blank memorandum pages which add much to the utility of the book.

Last, but not least, the schedule blanks and cut blanks have been placed next to the back cover of the book. Here they are very accessible and can be found in an instant.

The committee is to be commended greatly on the improvements of this issue of the Blue-book.

College Notes.

—No repairs on the walks down the Hill.

—Coupe, Hastings, Sarles and Sherwin are new members of the choir.

—Two weeks ago Sicard, '06, was back on the field coaching the ends.

—The Freshmen regard with pride their masterpice on the baseball back-stop.

—Upperclassmen are utilizing complimentary season tickets for the Gym. show.

—Mix and Hallock respectively won the Baldwin and Brockway entrance prizes.

—Smith, '08, has been testing track candidates with some preliminary training.

—The plan of holding 2 o'clock Wednesday Chapel is not meeting with favor.

—We are glad to notice that several Freshmen show considerable ability on the track.

—Because of the illness of "Square" Root, Prof Saunders has taken his place as head of the Mathematical Department.

—Time and tide wait for no man—nor does Sunday breakfast.—From the maxims of Mahady.

—Osborn, Saunders and Wilcox of the Sophomore Class are out for the assistant football manager.

—The college sympathises with Truax, '09, in the death of his father, one of our most honored alumni.

—The Chapel bulletin board nowadays resembles the lost and found columns of a metropolitan newspaper.

—Training table was started in Commons Monday with eight men. More will be added from time to time.

—Five Sophomores have left college, but three new members have entered, which nearly equals their original number.

—Roenke, '09, did not return to college on account of the death of his mother. He intends to enter next year with the class of 1910.

—Senior elections held this week resulted as follows: Swetman, president; Grossmeyer, vice-president; Kuolt, secretary; and Peck, treasurer.

—The exterior of New South is finished. It will be opened for occupancy January 1st if there are a sufficient number of applicants for rooms.

—The Sophomore class elections were as follows: Spencer, president; A. F. Osborn, vice-president; Getman, secretary; and Blodgett, treasurer.

—The standing in the LIFE competition is as follows: 1909, Hopkins, Rifembark, McLean; 1910, Glover, Lloyd, Brasted, Harper, Cross, Engs, Titus.

—Lyon, ex-'08, was here at the opening of college, but left for Ann Arbor, where he and Haggerson, also ex-'08, have entered the University of Michigan.

—Trippe, '07, leader of the Mandolin Club, and Simmons, '08, leader of the Glee Club, have decided to give a concert on November 9th, the night before the Colgate game.

—Drummond, '06, was at the row. He expects to enter Harvard this fall to study English. Stryker, '06, and Driscoll, '06, are at the same institution, attending the Law School.

—The following alumni have been on the Hill: Foster, '96, George, '97, Nellis, '06, Benedict, '06, Kellogg, '06, Goodyear, ex-'08, Cunningham, '99, Soper, '04, Munger, '05, and Heacock, '06.

—The "Gym Show" began with vigor last Friday night. In the early part of the evening Dounce did his best to amuse the Sophomores, and later Osborne reciprocated Dounce's favor for the Freshmen.

—The first Y. M. C. A. meeting of the year on Sunday afternoon was a record breaker for attendance. Prof. Ward gave a most excellent talk, taking as his subject, "Reasons why the fellows should openly show the Christian spirit here on the Hill."

—All the fellows from the Hill, who are in Utica next Wednesday evening, can help the management by waiting for the special at 12:30 which will bring the football men home. Be at the Central station to meet the team when they reach Utica at 12:32 and come out with them.

Association Notes.

Last Sunday afternoon at the opening service Prof. Ward gave a talk on the value of an active Christian life in college. It was an exceedingly interesting address and the speaker will be a great help in the work this year.

It was noticed last year that there was some disturbance in the reading room in Silliman Hall, taking the form of talking and laughing or pushing and rough-housing. This room should be kept quiet; there are always some who want to read and it is only politeness to them that the others should be as quiet as possible. All loud communication and disorderly conduct is out of place; hats should be off and smoking is not allowed in the building.

Next Sunday afternoon after the customary devotional service there will be a meeting of the Association for the election of a secretary to fill the place of Harold G. Aron, who has resigned on account of leaving college. This office is held this year by a member of the Class of 1909. A full attendance is requested.

The Chapel Row.

The Freshman class received the customary welcome extended to all entering classes on Thursday morning after Chapel. The ceremony took place as usual in front of the Chapel in accordance with the request of Dr. Stryker, who advised all those who had neglected to buy return tickets to desist from extending a helping hand inside the sacred walls.

As for the row itself, well, it was just like those gone by and those yet to come. Though laboring under the disadvantage of not being organized, the Freshmen gave a good account of themselves.

After five minutes of the most strenuous work those Freshmen ever did the upperclassmen called the row off, giving the decision to the Freshmen.

In the field events, which followed immediately, the heavyweight wrestling bout furnished no little excitement, Sherwin, '10, winning two out three falls. The middle weight bout was won by Thomas, '09, and the featherweight, by Day, '09. The Sophomores won two out of three of the grass races and put an end to the exercises of the day by giving the Freshmen a ride about the Campus on the rope provided for the tug of war. An upperclassman meeting was called and by them the Sophomores were declared the victors of the day.

Professors Grove and Ward.

The vacancy on the Faculty, caused by the resignation of Dr. Nichols, professor of higher mathematics, is to be filled by Prof. Grove. He is a graduate of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, where he received the degrees of A.M. and A.B. Last June he was honored with the degree of Ph.D., from Johns Hopkins. He has had much experience and will be a valuable man for the position. We gladly welcome Prof. Grove to the Hill.

Rev. Edward J. Ward, a Hamilton graduate, class of 1902, is also a new man on the Faculty. He has the Freshmen in Elocution, English Composition and History. He also has charge of the Wednesday chapel.

Prof. Ward has taken a very active interest in athletics and for this reason will be especially popular with the college body. He needs no expression of welcome from his Alma Mater.

The Y. M. C. A. Reception.

The Y. M. C. A. reception last Monday evening, held especially to welcome the Freshmen, was the most successful of any in years, both in numbers and spirit. The reception halls were more than crowded with the students and the Faculty.

The meeting began with the official address of welcome by Scoon, '07, the president of the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Stryker then followed with a short speech, seconding Scoon's welcome and telling the Freshmen to grasp every opportunity here on the Hill. Schwartz, '07, captain of the football team, then gave some excellent advice to the Freshmen on athletics. Dr. Saunders next favored the company with a violin solo, which was encored. Mr. Safford, of Yale University, gave a most interesting talk on the work of the Student Volunteer Missionary movement. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

Changes in Football Rules of 1906.

striking with the fist or elbow, kneeling, meeting with the knee by any player, or striking with the locked hands by linemen when they are breaking through.

Furthermore, a player on defense is forbidden to strike in the face with the heel of the hand an opponent who is carrying the ball.

These offenses are punishable not only by disqualification of the player, but also the loss by the offending team of half the distance to its own goal line.

Tripping and tackling the runner when clearly out of bounds, piling up on a player after the referee has declared the ball dead, hurdling, and other acts of unnecessary roughness, are punishable by a fifteen yard loss. Tackling below the knee is punishable by a five yard loss. Unsportsmanlike conduct, abusive or insulting language to opponents or officials is punishable by suspension for the remainder of the game.

It is provided that a tackler who has fairly tackled a runner above the knee shall not be penalized if he slides down below the knee after making the tackle.

All the officials are expected to penalize offenses enumerated under unnecessary roughness, unsportsmanlike conduct, and disqualification.

On penalties that would carry the ball to or across the goal line, where formerly the distance has been halved, the ball will now be placed at the one yard line.

College Chums

Ought to have photos—good photos—taken singly and in groups, for mutual exchange. There's no pleasanter souvenir of college days. My very long and large experience enables me to give best results.
